GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Riley Grannan, for several years one of the heaviest plungers on the American turf, has undergone a serious operation at the Roosevelt Hospital, New York City, to relieve a disability of long standing. It was entirely successful, although Grannan did not recover from the shock as readily as was hoped. He is now so much improved that his ultimate recovery is assured.

Capt. J. H. Rees last Friday announced he had decided to quit the turf for good. He will finish out the meeting at New Orleans, will be in the stand at Memphis, and will keep his promise to look after the details at Louisville, but with the end of that meeting he steps down and out for good. His interest in racing, which has lasted many years, has been based almost entirely on sentimental principles. He has received a salary, but what money he has been paid has been handed out in expenses and charities. He is a wealthy man, and has been willing to devote almost his entire time to the work of ridding the turf of the evils which have threatened to wreck it.

Time, 24, 49, 1:14, 1:28.

Winner—B. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—La Plata.
Went to post at 2:12. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Huachuca was practically under hard pressure from the start and was driven into the lead early which he never relinquished, finishing strongly. The Weaver, off poorly, closed a gap on the pacemaker in the first quarter and the two raced as a team for the remainder of the journey, the winner being probably the better conditioned. Ada N. displayed fine speed and stamina throughout and is good. February finished strongly after a rough journey under a bad ride. Our Lizzie finished fast on the extreme outside after making a very wide stretch turn. Lady Sterling quit after running a good half and ran an inexplicably bad race. Throw it out. Parsifal wants mud and Mythrox was outclassed.

Scratched—(31063) Mike Strauss, 110; 30716 Ulloa, 108; 31050 Kildoe, 96; 31097 Montana Peers, 94. Huachuca, show, out. The Weaver, show, 8 to 5. Ada N., show, 2 to 1. Lady Sterling, show, out.

31111 SECOND RACE—1-4 Miles. (Over 5 hurdles.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Winner—Ch. g. by Duke of Norfolk—Carmen, by Wildidle.
Went to post at 2:42. At post 1 minute. Start good for all except Sam Green. Won easily; second the same. Duke of York outclassed the field on the flat and as a jumper and went to the front with ease in the stretch. Bonitary ran a promising race, showing plenty of speed on the flat, but lost ground when taking the obstacles. Sea Song finished well.

Overweights—Bonitary, 4 pounds.
Duke of York, show, out. Bonitary, show, 2 to 1. The entry, show, 1 to 2. Sam Green, show, 1 to 3. Sea Song, singly, place, 10 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Auriferra, singly, place, 2 to 1; show, 1 to 3.

Time, 1:21, 25, 49.

Winner—Ch. c. by Captive—Miss Griny.
Went to post at 3:07. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Bell Reed, lucky and perfectly handled, was best at the distance. Arabo was badly handled and swerving all over the stretch, and might have beaten the winner with jockeys reversed. He evidently favors a route and is above the average. Vinctides went very wide and ran a very fast first quarter from an indifferent break. The Phantom, under a bad ride, finished strongly. Gold Van had but a scant chance at the start, but is so big he will hardly cut much figure this spring.

Scratched—Darante, 103.
Overweights—The Phantom, 5 pounds; Deutschland, 3.
Bell Reed, show, out. Arabo, show, evens. Vinctides, show, 7 to 10.

31113 FOURTH RACE—1-8 Miles. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 2:51, 52, 1:18, 1:44, 1:56.

Winner—Blk. c. by Sir Dixon—Meridin.
Went to post at 3:56. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Black Dick, always well in hand, appeared a certain winner throughout and was easily best. John McGurk is in great form for him and finished strongly, under poor handling. El Mido finished fast and ran the best race of his recent career. Loyal S. is useful but probably favors a slow track. Essence was evidently short, but showed plenty of early speed. Evea G. in spite of the slow early pace was under pressure to keep up and quit badly in the last half.

Scratched—30959 Morengo, 103.
Black Dick, show, 1 to 4. John McGurk, show, evens. El Mido, show, 3 to 5. Evea G., show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. g. by Watercress—Hana.
Went to post at 3:56. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Herculean is in rare form, but was choked and pulled up several times in the first quarter and nearly fell. He lost lengths by mishaps, but recovered and went to the front in the next quarter and stood off Jim Hale's strong challenge at the end. The latter was lucky and next to the rail throughout. He bided his time

Winner—Br. c. by Conrad—Too Sweet.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second handily. Sweet Tooth broke flat-footed and galloped leisurely in behind the pacemakers to the stretch where he shot through next to the rail and at the end was practically cantering home all alone. School for Scandal drawing out of close quarters finished with a rush right at the end. Kittie Kelly did well but just lasted long enough to beat the fast-moving Wyoming. The latter had to race wide around the field on the stretch turn. Dorian set a stiff pace and looked good in the stretch but tired and quit after a good brush with the winner. Sweet Tooth was bid up from $900 to $1,500 and bought in.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Mayor Julius Fleischmann, of Cincinnati, when recently asked about his stable of thoroughbreds, said: "I shall send part of my string to Latonia for the spring meeting there. That I consider my home track, although it is across the river in Kentucky. My stable always raced there years ago, and as every effort is being put forth by the track management and the Cincinnati public to lift racing at the historic old course out of the rut into which continuous racing and syndicate bookmaking placed it, home pride prompts me to lend a hand. As you know, I shall add a cup to a race for two-year-olds during the meeting, which will be known as the Cincinnati trophy. Latonia has not had such a prospect for a good meeting in many years, and I hope to see my colors first to the wire there."

When asked whether he had signed any jockey for next year, he said:

"There has been no jockey engaged for me this season as yet. I think the jockey problem one of the hardest that the proprietor of a racing stable has to contend with. Last year I secured a boy, Dale, whom I thought would make a good rider, but he was not equal to the demand and I was forced to release him. Still, I hope to have some winners in my barn, and as the good boys like to ride winners, I shall probably be able to secure one of them occasionally. There are only a few yearlings left to represent the stud farm formerly maintained in Kentucky, and they will be up for sale during the season. My entire stable will probably be sold at the latter part of the season, as usual. I do not like the weeding out process and prefer to dispose of the entire lot and begin each season with a new stable.

"Besides, I prefer to develop and race young stock. There is something in the development of two-year-olds, probably the element of luck attached to it, that has an attraction for me.

"But to get away from personal matters, I do not think I ever saw a time when there was brighter prospects for a great and glorious season of racing than the coming season promises.

"Especially do I look for a great revival of the old time glories of the Saratoga meetings of years ago. As to the spring handicaps they promise well. The weights are well adjusted and I cannot see any one candidate that seems to have the best or worst of the argument on that score. Handicap winners are always easier to pick after the race has been run, anyhow."
